UTS Library: Group Study Rooms

The City Campus Library and Kuring-gai Campus Library Group Study Rooms and Presentation Practice Rooms, are available only to UTS Library staff and current UTS students. No hire charges apply but bookings are compulsory. Information regarding making bookings is available on the UTS Library website. Conditions apply to use of the Blake Library (City Campus) and the George Muir Library (Kuring-gai Campus) Group Study Rooms and Presentation Practice Rooms. See Group Study Rooms: Conditions of Use.
UTS Library External Space

Current UTS students may apply to use the area immediately outside the main entrance of the City Campus Library. This area is not available to any external groups. No hire charges ordinarily apply but written permission is compulsory. See Library External Space: Application to Use. Conditions apply to use of the UTS Library external space. See Library External Space: Conditions of Use. Use of the Library external space must comply with Sydney City Council regulations and any other statutory compliance issues. It is the responsibility of the Applicant to ensure compliance with appropriate regulations.

The Kuring-gai Campus Library external space is managed by the KGC Coordinator and Caretaker: tel 9514 5551.

Filming at the UTS Library

Current UTS students and staff, and external groups may apply to use the UTS Library premises for filming purposes. The UTS Library is often chosen by students for project and assignment work and occasionally by external groups requiring a library backdrop. Charges may apply and written permission is compulsory. See Filming at the UTS Library: Application to Film. Conditions apply to use of the UTS Library for filming purposes. See Photography and Filming at the UTS Library: Conditions of Use. UTS Library appreciates receiving a copy of any production made which features the UTS Library.

General Terms and Conditions

1. The UTS Library facilities may only be used by non UTS Library staff with the prior written approval of the Director Education and Research Services Unit, UTS Library Corporate Services (Blake Library) or Kuring-gai Library manager (George Muir Library) or an authorised delegated authority. The exception to this is use of Group Study Rooms and Presentation Practice Rooms. See Group Study Rooms: Conditions of Use for further information.

2. Any use of UTS Library facilities must not interfere with any UTS Library class, activity, event, program or client.

3. The UTS Library may deny an application for hire or use, or may cancel a previously approved application without notice if extraordinary or unusual circumstances warrant such action. The UTS Library also reserves the right to refuse the hire or use of facilities to any applicant without assigning any reason for such refusal.
4. No advertisement may be made in relation to the hiring or use of facilities at the UTS Library without the express prior approval in writing of Director Education and Research Services Unit, UTS Library Corporate Services (City Campus Library) or Kuring-gai Library manager (Kuring-gai Campus Library) or an authorised delegated authority.

5. Spaces available generally contain only basic furniture. In general, only the furniture equipment standard to the room is available. Furniture must be returned to its original position and condition at the conclusion of the period of hire or use.

6. No temporary structures may be erected or assembled on UTS Library premises without express prior written permission.

7. No electrical, mechanical or other equipment is to be brought onto UTS Library premises without prior written approval of Director Education and Research Services Unit, UTS Library Corporate Services (City Campus Library) or Kuring-gai Library manager (Kuring-gai Campus Library) or an authorised delegated authority. Laptops and phones are excepted if used in the wireless environment. Under the terms of the UTS Information Technology Security Policy, laptops may not be attached physically to the UTS Network. No access will be provided to power points when external facilities are used by student groups.

8. The driving of tacks, nails or screws etc. into the woodwork or walls or any part of the building, furniture or fixtures is strictly forbidden. Decorations other than plant or floral will not be permitted either internally or externally without express approval of the Director Education and Research Services Unit, UTS Library Corporate Services (City Campus Library) or Kuring-gai Library manager (Kuring-gai Campus Library) or an authorised delegated authority. Users may not without express permission of Director Education and Research Services Unit, UTS Library Corporate Services (City Campus Library) or Kuring-gai Library manager (Kuring-gai Campus Library) or an authorised delegated authority move plants, furniture or equipment within the immediate precincts of the areas made available to them.

9. Hirers or Users of the UTS Library facilities must ensure that the space and its surrounds are left in an appropriately clean condition. The Hirer or User is financially liable for any damages sustained to UTS Library property whether through their own action or through the action of their colleagues, contractors, subcontractors or guests and clients attending any function booked by the Hirer or User, or if the space and surrounds are not left in a reasonable state of cleanliness.

10. Unauthorised sound equipment and musical instruments may not be used on UTS Library premises. Hirers or Users shall describe any amplification and other sound and musical equipment in detail for approval by the UTS Library. Provision shall be made so that utility connections and facilities for mounting loudspeakers are installed in such a way as to control sound direction, establishing a fixed speaker(s) or performer(s) location, facilitate easy set-up of the sound system, control the decibel level of the sound and preserve the aesthetic values of the area. It is important that any noise made does not in anyway disturb Library staff and clients.

12. UTS Library does not provide any audiovisual equipment to Hirers or Users (other than equipment listed as standard for each individual room). Additional charges apply to use of data projectors. The Hirer or User is responsible for ensuring that any UTS Library equipment used during the hire period remains in the same condition as at the commencement of the hire period and that appropriate provisions are made for obtaining and returning the equipment. UTS Library does not accept any liability for loss or damage to equipment organised by the Hirer or User. UTS Library does not provide technical support and the Hirer or User must ensure that they have someone who can operate the equipment provided in the rooms, or brought into the Library.

13. UTS Library will not accept any charges incurred by the Hirer or User for any purposes whilst using UTS Library facilities.

14. The Hirer or User must vacate the premises by the end of the agreed period. Failure to do so may result in extra charges being applied or refusal for future use. The Hirer or User must also remove from the venue all goods; property or material brought in by or on behalf of the Hirer or User. This applies to all equipment, excepting UTS Library equipment already in the room at the beginning of the hire period.

15. All persons on the property of the University are required to abide by its By-Laws, Rules and other regulations. These can be accessed at the UTS Website – http://www.gsu.uts.edu.au/lrp.html

16. Smoking is prohibited in all University buildings.

18. Permission to introduce alcohol onto the campus at any function must be obtained in advance. The areas available for hire and use are part of the teaching and study areas of the UTS Library and this must be taken into account when considering allowing alcohol. The sale of alcohol on University premises, except in licensed areas, is illegal.

19. Parking is the responsibility of the Hirer or User and the hiring or booking of a room does not entitle the Hirer or User to parking. City Campus parking is limited to street metered parking and parking stations. The Kuring-gai Campus does have limited parking but use of this is subject to availability and may attract charges.
