

Downloading EndNote to a Mac

- * To download EndNote for free, visit the library website.
- * Go to the referencing page – then choose the download EndNote link under the EndNote heading
- * Accept the terms and conditions and hit the ‘Mac’ link on the following page.
- * Click on the EndNoteX7 Site Installer.dmg link (you need to scroll down a bit to see it).

▼ Macintosh

Before downloading, please make sure you have the correct system and word processor requirements (to find your system version, go to the Apple menu in the Finder on your computer and choose About This Macintosh, or About This Computer). EndNote X7 will work with all recent versions of Mac OS (ie 10.6 or later) and Word for Mac. Users of Pages (Apple's word processing program) should use either Pages 5.2 or Pages '09. More information about Pages can be found on EndNote's system requirements page.

EndNote's Support Site has more information on compatibility with word processing software. If you need to download an earlier version of EndNote, you should see earlier versions when you follow step 1 below.

To extract the download file you will need to have Stuffit Expander installed on your Macintosh (this should already be installed).

To download EndNote to your Macintosh, please follow the steps below. If you have any issues during this process please contact the library.

1. Click on EndNote X7 Site Installer.dmg. You'll be asked for your UTS login details, and then taken to the downloading site. Click on the link that you see there with this name and save the file to your Desktop.

- * You will be required to log on with your UTS username and password

- * From the page that opens choose the EndNoteX7 Site Installer.dmg link
